Feast Days and Memorials

Aug 5: Dedication of the Basilica of St Mary Major

After the Council of Ephesus declared Mary as "God-bearer" in the year 431, this basilica was built in Rome by Pope Sixtus III. It is the oldest in the West dedicated to the Mother of God and is the Patriarchal Basilica of Antioch. There are four Patriarchal Basilicas of Rome, which are distinguished by their special "holy door." The other three are St. John Lateran, cathedral of the Pope, Patriarch of the West; St. Peter's, Patriarchal Basilica of Constantinople, and St. Paul's, assigned to the Patriarch of Alexandria.

Aug 6: Transfiguration of the Lord

After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; then from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. Mark 9: 2-8

On August 6 and 9, the world will commemorate the 72nd anniversary of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. As these events are recalled, we are urged to pray for world peace and for increased "efforts in favor of nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament."
(Pope Benedict XVI to Japanese ambassador to the Holy See, Nov. 29, 2010)

Aug 7: St. Sixtus II, Pope, and Companions, Martyrs

A Roman of Greek descent, Sixtus was elected to the papacy in 257. He repaired the rift that had developed over the issue of baptism and rebaptism between the sees of Rome and Carthage. During the persecution of Christians by the Emperor Valerian, he was martyred along with seven deacons, including St. Lawrence of Rome.

Aug 7: St. Cajetan, 1480-1547, Priest

Patron saint of workers, gamblers, job seekers, the unemployed

Gaetano dei Conti di Thiene was an Italian priest and religious reformer who co-founded the Theatine order. Concerned by corruption and excess in the Church that prompted the Reformation, Cajetan and other clergy chose not to split from it as Martin Luther and others did, but to restore it. He died in Naples on the Feast of the Transfiguration, when the city was still in serious spiritual, political, and social trouble.

Aug 8: St Dominic, 1170-1221, Priest

Patron saint of astronomers, astronomy, and those who are falsely accused

Born into Spanish nobility, this saint rejected his wealth and led a life of poverty, humility, and obedience. As a young man, he sold all he had to help feed the homeless. He studied theology and the arts and founded the Dominican order.

Aug 9: St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, 1891-1942, Virgin and Martyr

Born into a large Jewish family in Breslau, Poland, Edith Stein was drawn to the Catholic faith and joined a Carmelite convent in Germany. Even though she was sent to a monastery in Holland for her own safety, she was arrested there and sent to Auschwitz. She was beatified as a martyr in 1997 by Pope John Paul II and canonized by him the next year.

Aug 10: St Lawrence, 225-258, Deacon and Martyr

Patron saint of Rome, students, firefighters, chefs and the poor

Lawrence was among the 3rd Century Christian clergy who were killed by the Emperor Valerian in his effort to eliminate followers of Christ from Rome. When asked to turn over the Church's treasures, Lawrence gathered the poor, handicapped, and the unfortunate and presented them as the true gold and silver of the Church.

MARY QUEEN OF APOSTLES PROVINCE

HERALDS OF GOOD NEWS

(A Missionary Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right)

Heralds of Good News is an indigenous Missionary Society, founded in Eluru Diocese in India in 1984. It became an Institute of Pontifical Right on May 5, 1999. The specific aim of the society is the promotion of vocations to priesthood, the training of seminarians and the supply of zealous and hardworking missionaries to parishes that experience a shortage of priests due to the lack of local vocations. Right from its inception, the society was sending missionaries to dioceses in India and abroad.

Fr. Sebastian was recently appointed to be the new Mission Superior for Mary, Queen of Apostles Province here in the United States! He will be in charge of over forty priests and will conduct the administrative duties from here in Claremont. He tells us that he may have to do a bit of traveling but not consistently or frequently.

This is a great honor for him and for his two parishes here in Claremont. On the weekend of August 3 and 4, both churches will have a special collection for HGN Seminarians, as was done last year.

Please be as generous as you can to St. Joseph Church's contribution to help Father Sebastian's religious brothers. Our Parish, as well as many others in New Hampshire, are blessed by HGN priests' willingness to come to our state and serve Our Lord in our state.

If you prefer to write a check, please make it out to St. Joseph Church and the parish will write a check for our total donation. Dziekue bardzo! Thank you very much!

The Homebound Ministry is in need of additional Lay Ministers of the Holy Eucharist.

The Ministry has grown and is still growing.

Home visits alone have more than doubled
since March of this year.

We are still trying to incorporate
Sullivan County Health Care and the Elmwood Center.

Steve Denis, Director, is assisted by Jackie Merrill, Bill Pamplin and Gary Lambert.

We encourage others to join us to serve the great need for this ministry in our Parishes.

If you feel called to this ministry as a
Lay Minister of the Holy Eucharist
then please reach out to Steve Denis at 603-558-5209.

Homebound visits are made by Father Sebastian or one of the Lay Ministers.

Home Visitation of Pilgrim Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe

If you would like this very special Image to visit your home for a week, please contact Juanita Sweet at: juanitajoy2@gmail.com or 603-477-1348.

Our Bulletin Policy

We have received requests from other parishes to put notices in our bulletin. Our space is limited, so our policy is to limit our notices to those relating to St. Joseph and St. Mary Churches, notices requested by our Pastor and Bishop, events we are participating in that are sponsored by other area churches, and Polish cultural events in the Northeast. We thank you for understanding that space would become unmanageable if we honored every request that comes in.
